

January 12, 2023

Dear Scholarship Applicant:

As an outstanding high school student you are invited to apply for the Tomorrow's Teacher Scholarships that will be awarded to incoming freshman students enrolled in the College of Education at Kansas State University. There will be four scholarships of $5000 each and one for $2000 awarded this year. These five scholarships are renewable for all four years. There will also be six $500 one-year scholarships awarded. Please see the attached sheet with the scholarship requirements.

If you wish to apply for this scholarship, you must complete the Tomorrow's Teacher Scholarship Application by March 1, 2023. The scholarship application is available on-line at www.tomorrowteacher.com. The scholarship application requires an essay to be completed of at least 1,000 words on the following: "Describe your responsibility to teach your students about the ideals in which America is founded and create a classroom environment where your students live up to these ideals." For further information on the scholarship program, please visit our website at www.tomorrowteacher.com.

You will be notified by May 1, 2022 if you have received this scholarship. Thank you for your interest in the College of Education. I'm looking forward to you attending K-State this fall. Please contact me if I may be of further assistance to you. My email address is pmonroe@ksu.edu and phone is 785-532-5526.

Sincerely,

Pam Monroe
College of Education
Scholarship Coordinator

Tomorrow's Teacher Scholarship Requirements

- Tomorrow's Teacher scholarships are offered to high school seniors who are Kansas residents seeking a teacher education degree at Kansas State University.
- Applicants must be seniors graduating from a Kansas high school with a grade point average of at least a 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.
- Applicants must write an essay of at least 1,000 words on the following, "Describe your responsibility to teach your students about the ideals in which America is founded and create a classroom environment where your students live up to these ideals."
- Tomorrow's Teacher Scholarship awards are not based upon financial need.
- Recipients must enroll in a minimum of 12 credit hours, preferably 15 credit hours, each semester.
- Recipients must agree to perform at least 100 hours of community service during a 12-month period from September 1st through August 31st during the years they receive the award.
- In order to gain a basic understanding of the business world and thus deliver a holistic approach to education, recipients must agree to take at least one elective course in the College of Business Administration, College of Health and Human Sciences, or College of Arts and Sciences dealing with personal finance, investment, economics, marketing, business process, or corporate finance during each year the recipient is awarded the scholarship.
- Freshmen recipients will be eligible to receive scholarship awards in the subsequent three years provided they maintain a grade point average of at least a 3.5 on a 4.0 scale; perform the required minimum of 100 hours of community service during each twelve-month period from September 1 through August 31; take at least one course dealing with business, finance, or economics during each school year; and reapply for the scholarship each year by completing the Kansas State University scholarship network application by March 15.
- Freshmen applicants must complete and file the Kansas State University scholarship network application with KSU's Student Financial Assistance Office prior to March 15. In addition, the applicant must complete the Tomorrow's Teacher Scholarship Application by March 1. This application may be completed on-line at the following web site: <http://tomorrowsteacher.com/>.